An offspeed-dominant pitcher, even early in counts. Has been very successful with this strategy, batters are hitting .412 on fastballs but only .043 on all offspeed, the only hit being a slider that was taken over the fence. Started and pitched 4 shutout innings in our delayed game from earlier this season. Only threw 21% fastballs in the shortened outing, and will likely come at us with mostly sliders and changeups again today. Percentages were way off on my first Freeman report, due to only 1 inning of data in relief.
