Slider	75.6	28%	41%	29%	33%

Sidearm pitcher, very productive out of the pen for Rockford this season, although he hasn't had the finest control. 59% of sliders and 78% percent of changeups have been balls, but he does a good job of inducing contact on the fastball to avoid walks. Fastball has good sinking action to it. Slider does not break much, mostly spins. Release point on the pitch is slightly lower and Ruen looks as if he's just trying to make the pitch spin instead of letting it leave the hand naturally. Changeup is seldom thrown, rarely in the zone.
