Mostly a long reliever at Div II Florida Southern College, Leroy will be starting his 6th game of the summer with Madison. Very reliable arm, throws a lot of strikes and keeps his walk rate low, with only 19 in 63.1 innings this spring and summer. Strong fastball will touch 90, with a strike-rate of 64%. Best pitch is a curveball with a very high whiff rate of 42% and a low BAA of .080 (2-for-25). He spots the pitch well, often leaving it in the zone, but it has such late and sharp break that it misses bats very often. Slider has been more hittable, despite have similar - yet not as sharp - break. Seldomly brings out the changeup, which has very little break, if any at all, and gets hit around much more frequently. Coming off of two very solid starts (10IP 4R) against a very good Rafters team, Leroy will look to keep it going with another quality outing here. Look for a heavy dose of fastballs and curveballs.
