Comments

Has dominated this summer for Madison, in part due to great location, as seen by the high-low red-blue divide of fast and slow. Only 3 walks in 24 NWL innings, coming off a 6IP OR 10K gem vs. the 21-2 Rafter. 6'8" frame leads to a high release point and makes the high fastballs even harder to barrel. Breaking pitches are sharp and work well off of the fastball's action, are usually spotted low and out of the zone. Alongside his low walk rate comes 66% first pitch strikes, and this is probably the best time to turn his fastball around.
